MISSOURI TEACHERS OF THE YEAR

HON. W. TODD AKIN

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. AKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the "Teachers of the Year" selected in the Second Congressional District of Missouri for their outstanding efforts to educate our children.

A quality education is critical to a child's future. Without good education, a child has no future. Together with parenting and faith, education literally defines a child's future. Among all school-based factors, teacher quality is the most important; that some teachers are much more effective than others with similar students; and that teacher quality may specially affect the achievement of disadvantaged students.

The teachers I rise to commend here today are individuals who have made and are making a difference in the lives of children and in their communities. Quality teachers provide experience, patience, diligence and understanding to the classroom.

In conjunction with National Teacher Appreciation Day, I would like to commend the following teachers who have been recognized by their colleagues for their contributions to education.

RECOGNIZING MR. STEVEN ENGELHAUPT

HON. PATRICK J. TIBERI

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. TIBERI. Mr. Speaker, I would like to congratulate and honor a young Ohio student from my district who has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service in his community. Steven Engelhaupt of Dublin, has been named as one of my state's top honorees in The 2001 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program, an annual honor conferred on the most impressive student volunteers in each state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

Mr. Engelhaupt is being recognized for providing, over the past three years, new toys to thousands of children in central Ohio through the Firefighters for Kids toy drive in Columbus. He began the project by collecting used toys and repairing and cleaning them for resale. The cash Mr. Engelhaupt received was then used to purchase new toys which were given to needy children. To date, his efforts have generated over $24,000 in cash and additional in-kind contributions.

In light of numerous statistics that indicate Americans today are less involved in their communities than they once were, it's vital that we encourage and support the kind of selfless contribution this young citizen has made. Mr. Engelhaupt should be extremely proud to have been singled out from such a large group of dedicated volunteers. I applaud Mr. Engelhaupt for his initiative in seeking to make his community a better place to live, and for the positive impact he has had on the lives of others. His actions show that young Americans can—and do—play important roles in our communities, and that America's community spirit continues to hold tremendous promise for the future.

THANKS TO OUR TEACHERS

HON. JERRY MORAN

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. MORAN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize our nation's exceptional teachers.

Today, as part of National Teacher Day and Teacher Appreciation Week, The National Teachers Hall of Fame will announce their 2001 inductees. Congratulations to this year's inductees: Ronald Foresos, Dr. Emiel Hamberlin, Mitsuye Conover, James Quinlan, and Ellen Kempler, for their hard work and dedication to our nation's students.

The mission of The National Teachers Hall of Fame, located in Emporia, Kansas, is to recognize and honor exceptional teachers and the teaching profession. As part of this mission, The National Teachers Hall of Fame sponsors an annual teacher recognition program open to all K-12 teachers throughout the country. For the past 10 years, The National Teachers Hall of Fame has provided a fitting tribute to our nation's most important profession. On June 23, the Hall of Fame will induct its 10th class and welcome many of the 45 NTHF members back to Emporia to celebrate a 10-year reunion.

I would also like to recognize all educators for their contributions to our communities—and to thank those special teachers who have made a difference in my life. Thank you Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Pruter, and Mr. McCauley and all the others who educated me with facts and figures and instilled in me a love of learning.

Few other professionals touch so many people in such a lasting way. Teachers fill many roles, as listeners, explorers, role models, motivators, and mentors. Educators make a difference in each of our lives. Today, and everyday, I would like to say thank you.

HONORING AVALON FIRE CHIEF
JACK T. GOSLIN ON HIS RETIREMENT

HON. JANE HARMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Ms. HARMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to pay tribute today to Jack T. Goslin, who will be retiring as the City of Avalon Fire Chief on May 31st. Chief Goslin began his career 43 years ago as a firefighter in the United States Air Force and has served the City of Avalon for over 39½ years. Significantly, Chief Goslin is the longest serving fire chief in Los Angeles County history.

His length of service to Avalon and his love for the seaside town is unmatched. He will be missed but not forgotten by all of those friends and colleagues who will gather on May 15th to wish him the very best for a long, active and healthy retirement. I join the citizens of Avalon in wishing Chief Goslin well. He has served the community with honor and distinction and a tenure that will likely be unsurpassed.
